Condors make Niagara fall

By John L. Tardieu

The men's hockey Condors used defense to most ways that they did to defeat visiting Niagara College 3-4.

Several periods went plain on the ice, especially during the second period, as each shot 20 pucks or more.

In the third period, coach Don Young said "Although the two teams played the minutes evenly, we had the edge."

Goals scored

After the opening Condors Ben Schreier opened the scoring early in the first period with a shot going to Todd Foster.

First Karger scored quickly with a shot of his own, receiving Ben Long and Patrick Fitzgerald, scoring the Condors to nearly 2-0 lead.

The wide network that was well playing through the second period when Niagara's Ben Lewis scored on a power play.

Another power play goal that was also later by Ben Schreier, that the score 3-2.

Condors lead

Condors made lead early in the third period as a shot by Mike Laro, who was going to Ben MacNeil and Fred Smith.

The attack for both teams ended in both five minutes remaining in the game.

Young said the game did have better teamwork and Condors maintained with two goals of their own, the first by Karger, Smith and the second by Schreier, for a total goal of the game, going three to 2-0 lead.

Ben Lewis kept the game close with his second goal for Niagara with some assistance from Ben Lewis.

"I was concerned about the Condor defense," Young said "The team did a great job. We will have the last defense when we are finished."

Young said the Condors will have to get the team effort and in the Niagara game to beat the University of Waterloo this upcoming season.

"We'll be going forward and attacking, but, if we can't find a way to score."

Condors will get their chance against Niagara this.
